

GACOPERAS

The Official Newsletter of the Georgia College Personnel Association

Thank you to all who attended GCPA 2015 and the GCPA NextGen Conference 2015!

As we move forward with another academic year, GCPA would like to thank you all and commend you for the work you have done to support students throughout the state of Georgia. We hope that you have had a chance to network and meet some incredibly talented higher education professionals around the state.

Whether you were on the board, recently attended our annual conference, or just read our newsletter, thank you for being a part of GCPA!
